

18th Annual Maritime Career Day

9 a.m. – 1 p.m., Monday, May 9, 2016

Georgetown Campus of South Seattle Community College, 6737 Corson Avenue South

Come meet with representatives from more than 40 businesses, maritime organizations and training schools! Enjoy cool demonstrations! Check out industry displays!

Free!

Sponsored by:

Did you know*....

$70,800 - average annual salary before benefits for maritime industry employees
– more than $20,000 above the average wage in Washington!

$79,000 – average annual salary of ship building and repair employees

$83,000 – average annual wage of Marine Engineers and Naval Architects

$72,000 – average annual wage of Crane and Tower Operators

$71,000 – average annual wage of Captains, Mates and Pilots

Washington State Maritime in 2012 generated $30 billion in revenues and was responsible for more than 148,000 jobs?

Maritime Careers. They ARE a great gig!

Teachers: To reserve space for your class:

Ken Saunderson, Maritime Career Day Coordinator, (206) 282-6858 or info@seattlemaritime101.com

Ask about us helping to pay for your bus transportation!

* 2012 Study by the Economic Development Council of Seattle and King County and the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County.